

What Happens After You Find Him? [Based upon John 1:26-49]

1. "The two disciples heard him [John the Baptist] _____, and they followed Jesus" (vs. 37).
2. "John the Baptist got the Jesus _____ started" (Andrews Study Bible, pg. 1380).
3. We are called, just as John the Baptist was, to point people in our sphere of influence to _____, the Lamb of God.
4. "...one of the most effective ways of winning souls to Him is in exemplifying His character in our daily life. Our influence upon others depends not so much upon what we say as upon what we _____. Men may combat and defy our logic, they may resist our appeals; but a life of disinterested _____ is an argument they cannot gainsay. A consistent life, characterized by the meekness of Christ, is a power in the world" (Ellen White, Desire of Ages, pgs. 141-142).
5. "He [Andrew] _____ found his own brother Simon, and said to him, "We have _____ the Messiah" (which is translated, the Christ)" (vs. 41).
6. "The first impulse in the heart of one who is truly converted is to share the joy and the blessing of salvation with others, particularly with those who are _____ and _____" (Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary Vol. 5, pg. 910).
7. Just like God used Philip's _____ witness to bring Nathanael to faith in Him, He can use our imperfect witness to bring others to faith in Him as well.

8. _____ out of 5 of Jesus' disciples mentioned in the first chapter of John follow Jesus because of other peoples' influence. Only 1 followed because Jesus directly invited him.
9. "These examples should teach us the importance of personal effort, of making direct appeals to our kindred, friends, and neighbors. There are those who for a lifetime have professed to be acquainted with Christ, yet who have never made a personal effort to bring even one soul to the Saviour. They leave all the work for the minister. He may be well qualified for his calling, but he cannot do that which God has left for the _____ of the church.
"There are many who need the ministration of loving Christian hearts. Many have gone down to ruin who might have been saved if their neighbors, common men and women, had put forth _____ effort for them. Many are waiting to be personally addressed. In the very family, the neighborhood, the town, where we live, there is work for us to do as missionaries for Christ. If we are Christians, this work will be our _____. No sooner is one converted than there is born within him a desire to make known to others what a precious _____ he has found in Jesus. The saving and sanctifying truth cannot be shut up in his heart" (Desire of Ages, pg. 141).

10. I, _____, want to "come and see" Jesus daily in His Word, and I want to use my words and loving actions in daily life to influence others to follow Jesus.
